What's Been happening:

- The knockout entry sheets have been displayed in the main entrance hall, opposite the shop, please write your name on the sheet and put the corresponding entry fee in the box provided. Entries close on the 31st March...
- You will be please to learn that we will shortly be using a new bulk email template, those of you who are struggling to make sense of this due to formatting issues should notice a change within the next two weeks..
- Our daily mail team won their postponed match against Moor Park on Saturday, a convincing win against some good players. Well done team!! That's the ladies and the men through to the next round.....
- Duncan Steele triumphed in the Sole Survivor held on Sunday, a good turn out 11 players meant healthy competition for a very sought after trophy. Bedfordshires finest (Leek & Hawksby) who fell at the final hurdles were out classed by Donna Steele, the first lady to play sole survivor, Donna made it through to the final pair, playing hole 10 for the title against Duncan. Well played all and thank you for your support.
- Don't forget there's an EGM next Tuesday evening, 22nd March, 19:30 sharp. Details are on the notice board and have been previously communicated via email.

- The new path on hole 1 is open for use. The bare earth areas will be seeded with both grass and wild flowers. When playing the hole, there is a new white line delineating out of bounds. As the areas around the new path improve we will move the OOB line closer to the new path. Anyone that moans about the new OOB line should be reminded that a ball landing within the area of the new path would have previously landed in thick brambles and would have certainly been unplayable or lost.

- This years bunker re-development (phase 2) is complete, we are waiting for the revet faces to adhere before opening them for play. We estimate a late April early May opening as per last year (phase 1)

- Apologies from me regarding the competition last weekend, I closed the competition before setting it as a Non Qualifier. It has since been altered, handicaps therefore remain unaffected.

- I'd like to extend a warm welcome to our new members, joining us during late February and early March:

Sebastian Klyen, Dom Klyen, Kevin Klyen, Ian Graham, Steve Parry, Paul Howe, David Sewell, Sam Fitzgerald, Martin Moore, Raymond Moodley and Nick Brighton,

Thank you for joining the club.
